DSIT - District School Improvement Team

Would you like to be better informed about Adams 12 Five Star School District's programs, improvements, schools and budget?

If YES, then DSIT may be of interest to you.

DSIT is a group of parents, community members, teachers, staff and the Superintendent who come together to learn, share, participate and advocate for the education of our students.

“Our mission is to engage the community in the success of Adams 12 Five Star Schools in providing educational experiences to ensure students reach their full potential”

Become involved at various levels that suit your interest and time.

" Being a member of DSIT has given me a great opportunity to be active in my child's education at the school and district level. DSIT provides open dialogue and communication with the district/school administration in addition to sharing that information with fellow parents. Developing lifelong learners is an important role of parents and educators. There is no greater gift than the gift of your time. It is good to be a part of the team." - Sherri Penney, member since 1990
