LEGACY HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND PREPARES FOR LONDON'S NEW YEAR'S DAY PARADE

Legacy High School, 2701 W. 136th Ave., Broomfield.

The Legacy High School four-time state championship marching band is making final preparations for a high-impact, energizing marching performance in the historic New Year's Day Parade and Festival, Jan. 1, 2010 in London, England. The prestigious invitation was issued on behalf of the Festival Patrons, including Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant for Greater London and the Lord Mayor of Westminster. The Parade and Festival is the largest event of its kind featuring 10,000 participants from around the world. More than 500,000 people watch the parade route pass many of London's greatest landmarks including Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament, Whitehall, Trafalgar Square and Piccadilly. The Legacy band will also perform at the 'Music for London' concert series at the world-famous St. John's, Smith Square in late December. The 70-member band will travel to London on Monday, Dec. 28 and return on Monday, Jan. 4.
