Welcome to Adams 12 Five Star Schools

New Employee Handbook
This employee handbook is designed to introduce you to Adams 12 Five Star Schools and provide you with information about your employment with the district. This handbook is not all inclusive, but is intended to provide you with a summary of some of the district guidelines, Board policies and district policies with which you are expected to comply. Notice Regarding Rights of Pregnant Workers

Employees and applicants have the right to be free from discriminatory or unfair employment practices because of pregnancy, a health condition related to pregnancy, or the physical recovery from childbirth.

An employer may require an employee or applicant to provide a note stating the necessity of a reasonable accommodation from a licensed health care provider before providing such accommodation. If an applicant or an employee requests an accommodation, the employer and applicant or employee shall engage in a timely, good-faith, and interactive process to determine effective, reasonable accommodations for the applicant or employee for conditions related to pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition. If you need an accommodation, please contact Human Resources.

Notice Regarding Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA)

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) makes it unlawful to discriminate in employment against a qualified individual with a disability. The ADA also outlaws discrimination against individuals with disabilities in State and local government services, public accommodations, transportation and telecommunications. This part of the law is enforced by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and State and local civil rights enforcement agencies that work with the Commission.

Employees and applicants have the right to request reasonable accommodations for a disability that will enable the individual with disabilities to perform the essential job functions; unless to do so would cause undue hardship or cause direct threat to the health or safety of others.

To be protected by the ADA, one must have a disability, which is defined by the ADA as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, a person who has a history or record of such an impairment, or a person who is perceived by others as having such an impairment. The ADA does not specifically name all of the impairments that are covered.

An employer may require an employee or applicant to provide a note stating the necessity of a reasonable accommodation from a licensed health care provider before providing such accommodation. If an applicant or an employee requests an accommodation, the employer and applicant or employee shall engage in a timely, good-faith, and interactive process to determine effective, reasonable accommodations for the applicant or employee for conditions related to their disability. If you need an accommodation, please contact your Human Resources Administrator.

General Information

Awareness of Policies, Laws, and Regulations
It is the responsibility of each employee to be familiar with and to comply with the laws, board policies, board policies, and building or department regulations related to the job assignment. The district has the responsibility to make these documents available to you, but the employee should read and seek answers to any questions about any law, policy, or regulation. One of the main purposes for this handbook is to begin to provide you with the information you will need to be a productive employee. Being aware of the laws, policies, and regulations governing your employment will help avoid problems for you and the district.

Changing Your Personal Information
It is your responsibility to notify Human Resources as quickly as possible of any change of address (physical and/or mailing), name, telephone number, or emergency contacts. Changes should also be reported to your supervisor.

Shared Decision Making – District Policy 1100
1.0 The Superintendent supports the philosophy of shared decision making as reflected in Colorado state law, district Policy, district School Improvement Team bylaws, and master agreements with district employees.
2.0 While fully supporting these collaborative efforts, the Superintendent recognizes that Board policies hold the Superintendent accountable for achievement of Ends policies and compliance with Operating Limitations. Accordingly, except as provided by law or applicable master agreement, the Superintendent shall implement shared decision making by gathering feedback and input from appropriate stakeholders to inform his/her final decisions.

Absences From Work

Attendance
If you anticipate being late or absent from work, you are responsible for contacting your supervisor, administrator or designee. If you know about an absence in advance, you should inform your supervisor as soon as possible. This policy may vary to meet special requirements of your respective department, school, or employee classification.

Emergency School Closure and Two-Hour Delays – District Policy 5710
1.0 The Superintendent will determine when it is necessary to have a two-hour delay at the start of a school day, close district schools or dismiss students early in the event of hazardous conditions which threaten the safety or health of students or staff members.

Released Time for Voting – District Policy 4190
Since most employees of Adams 12 Five Star Schools have opportunity to vote before or after working hours, no blanket provision is made to release employees to vote. If, however, an employee’s work schedule presents unusual circumstances and a request is received prior to election day for released time to vote, the administrator shall consider the request as per criteria in District Policy 4190.

Paid Holidays
Most regular classified employees who are normally scheduled to work 20 or more hours per week shall have paid holidays. The length of a classified employee’s work year shall determine to which holidays s/he is entitled. For a complete listing, refer to Article 12.2 in the Classified Master Agreement. Twelve-month administrative employees are also entitled to paid holidays as listed in the Administrative Employees Compensation Program Handbook. Holidays for certified employees, and less-than-twelve-month administrative employees are granted as per the Perpetual School Calendar (District Policy 6100).
Vacation

Administrative: Twelve-month administrative employees accrue vacation time at the rate of 20 days per work year. Less-than-twelve-month employees are granted time off as per the Perpetual School Calendar (District Policy 6100). For additional information on vacation, see the Administrative Employees Compensation Program Handbook.

Certified: Certified employees do not accrue vacation time; however they do accrue temporary leave.

Classified: Only those classified employees who work 12 months per year are entitled to vacation time, and the amount of vacation time earned is based on the length of the employee’s workweek. A complete explanation of vacation benefits may be found in Article 12 of the Classified Master Agreement.

Temporary Leave

Administrative: Twelve-month administrative employees accrue 12 days of temporary leave per year and less-than-twelve-month employees, 11 days per year. Accrual is pro-rated for part-time employees. For additional information on temporary leave, see the Administrative Employees Compensation Program Handbook.

Certified: Certified full-time employees are granted 11 temporary leave days per year, and part-time employees are granted temporary leave on a pro-rated basis. For additional information on temporary leave, see Article 22 of the Certified Master Agreement.

Classified: Classified employees who are regularly scheduled to work 12 months per year and 40 hours per week accrue eight hours of temporary leave for each month worked. Eligible employees who work less than 40 hours per week accrue temporary leave at the rate of one hour per each 21 hours worked. For additional information, see Article 12 of the Classified Master Agreement.

Sick Leave Bank

Individuals of the classified and certified employee groups are eligible to participate in a Sick Leave Bank on a voluntary basis. The district provides the participating employees in each of these employee groups an emergency bank of temporary leave days. Employees may participate by donating days from their allotted temporary leave. Complete information about the Sick Leave Bank can be found in the Master Agreement for certified employees, the Sick Leave Bank Booklet for classified employees, or on the district’s internal website under the Benefits section (https://staff.adams12.org/myfivestar/benefits_loa).

Various Additional Leave Plans

District employees have the benefit of many different types of leave in addition to those listed here. These leaves are detailed in the Certified and Classified Master Agreements and the Administrative Employees Compensation Program Handbook.

Your Rights Under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) entitles eligible employees of covered employers to take unpaid, job-protected leave for specified family and medical reasons with continuation of group health insurance coverage under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had not taken leave. Please contact the Benefits Department for further information or to request a Leave of Absence form.
Under FMLA, Eligible Employees are entitled to:

- Twelve workweeks of leave in a 12-month period for:
  - The birth of a child and to care for the newborn child within one year of birth;
  - The placement with the employee of a child for adoption or foster care and to care for the newly placed child within one year of placement;
  - To care for the employee’s spouse, child or parent who has a serious health condition;
  - A serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the essential functions of his or her job;
  - Any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee’s spouse, son, daughter, or parent is a covered military member on “covered active duty”; OR
- Twenty-six workweeks of leave during a single 12-month period to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness if the eligible employee is the service member’s spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin (military caregiver leave).

Advance Notice and Medical Certification

The employee is required to provide advance notice and medical certification to the Human Resources Department. Taking of leave may be denied if FMLA requirements are not met.

- The employee ordinarily must provide 30 days advance notice when the leave is “foreseeable.”
- Certification issued by a health care provider is required to support a request for leave because of a serious health condition, and may require second or third opinions and/or re-certifications. A fitness for duty report may also be necessary for the employee to return to work.
- The Human Resources Department shall notify the employee in writing of the employee’s approval/denial of FMLA leave within two business days after receiving the Request for Family and Medical Leave of Absence form and the Certification of Health Care Provider form.
- Use of reduced leave under FMLA shall not be allowed to care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care.
- Use of intermittent temporary leave (other than accrued) shall not constitute FMLA leave, even if it would otherwise qualify under FMLA.

Job Benefits and Protection

- For the duration of FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee’s health coverage under any “group health plan.”
- Upon return from FMLA leave, the employee will be restored to his/her original or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.
- The use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee’s leave.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA.
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

- The U.S. Department of Labor is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of violations.
- An eligible employee may bring a civil action against an employer for violations.

FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights. For additional information visit http://www.dol.gov/whd/fmla/index.htm.

Risk Management and Safety

It is each employee’s responsibility to be aware of all safety and risk issues in their work area and to adhere to any established safety programs or procedures. It is the responsibility of each district employee to be aware of and adhere to established district policies. Following are highlights of some of the key policies as they relate to the conduct of staff and the use of information sources. The complete set of district policies may be found online at www.adams12.org/district-policies.

Nondiscrimination – District Policy 8400

1.0 Discrimination and Harassment Prohibited. The district is committed to nondiscrimination in relation to race, color, sex, age, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth in its educational programs, activities, operations and employment decisions. Harassment is a form of discrimination. Anyone engaging in discrimination will be subject to discipline in accordance with this and other district policies.
3.2 “Harassment” may include but is not limited to unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct based on a student’s or staff member’s actual or perceived race, color, sex, age, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth which has the effect of substantially undermining or detracting from, or interfering with, the victim’s educational work performance or access to the district’s resources and activities, or creating a hostile, offensive or intimidating school or work environment. Such conduct can include, but is not limited to, derogatory remarks, jokes, demeaning comments or behavior, slurs, innuendo, gestures, physical contact, stalking, threatening, bullying, restraining someone’s movement, or the display or circulation of written materials.

5.1 Any student or staff member who believes that s/he has been discriminated against, or who witnesses discrimination shall promptly make a report to the administrator or supervisor, or the Nondiscrimination Compliance Officer. If the person alleged to have engaged in prohibited conduct is the administrator or supervisor, reports should be made to the supervisor for the administrator or supervisor, the Chief Human Resources Officer, or the Nondiscrimination Compliance Officer.

6.1 If the investigating official concludes that this policy has been violated, consequences appropriate for the misconduct shall be imposed including but not limited to warning, exclusion, suspension, expulsion, transfer, remediation or termination.

7.1 It shall be a violation of this policy for any person to retaliate against a person who alleges discrimination or who testifies, assists or participates in an investigation, proceeding or hearing relating to discrimination allegations. Violation of this anti-retaliation provision may exist regardless of whether the underlying complaint of discrimination is substantiated.

7.2 Retaliation may take the form of intimidation, reprisal or discrimination and shall be subject to the reporting, investigation, and enforcement procedures set forth in this policy.

Acknowledgement of Receipt

I have received a copy of the new employee handbook. I understand that I am to become familiar with its contents. Further, I understand:
