

PARENTAL NOTICE OF DROPOUT STATUS

- 1.0 Building principals shall provide written notification to the parent(s) or guardian(s) of former students, over the age of 17 years, who have dropped out of school. The purposes of such notification shall be to describe the potential ramifications of dropping out of school and to discuss opportunities for the student to continue receiving educational services.
- 2.0 Nothing contained herein shall prevent schools from utilizing strategies in addition to the required written notification toward the goal of reenrolling students who have dropped out of school.
