

Board of Education Members and Overview

ADAMS 12 FIVE STAR DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION ROLE

The Board will govern lawfully with an emphasis on an outward vision rather than an internal preoccupation. As public elected officials, the Board of Education governs the school district through the careful establishment of broad written policies. The Board of Education hires the Superintendent who carries out these policies and runs the day-to-day operations of the district.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS

The Adams 12 Board of Education has five directors that are elected at large to four-year staggered terms. The district has a director district plan of representation which requires school board members reside in a specific geographic area. The district's Boundary Locator provides information regarding director districts for specific addresses. A director district map and written description of director district boundaries are available on the board webpage.

ROLE OF SUPERINTENDENT

While the school board governs the district through policies, the superintendent has authority over the district's operations. The superintendent leads the educational work of the district and is responsible for keeping the board informed about all district activities and needs. The superintendent manages the day-to-day affairs of the district, in line with the board's policies and legal requirements.
