Board of Education Meeting
Thornton High School Students
February 1, 2017
5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Pizza will be available by 5:15 p.m.

Board members are interested in hearing from you on the following topics. They also encourage you to raise any items not included that you are interested in discussing.

1. What do you like most about Thornton H.S.? What is one thing you would change?
2. Are you learning what you need to go to college, technical school, or to get the job you want? Please provide examples.
3. In transitioning to 11th grade how did you select between the IB Diploma program and the regular program?
4. Is there any subject area you wish you had more opportunities to study – earlier/deeper/more diversity?
5. What opportunities have you had to apply your learning to a real life experience(s)? (e.g. internships)
6. Do you feel supported at school? Do you feel teachers and staff are interested in you being successful? How involved is your family in your education and how important is that to your success?
7. How do you feel about the standardized testing you are required to take?
